NAIDOC 2018

On Friday, Miss Robinson organised some activities to celebrate NAIDOC 2018.

A sincere thank you to our special guest the Rev. Sealin Garlett, who did a traditional flag ceremony and Welcome to Country for us in the morning. In the afternoon students had rotations to do tile decorating, bracelet making, bead work and listened to the Reverend talk about growing up in this country. Students also made a mural on the windows in the quadrangle. This is still up and can be viewed when you visit the school.

Students enjoyed pulled pork rolls for lunch—thanks Mrs Bradley!

Thanks to Mrs Mackin (jnr) for coming in on her day off to help out and very special thanks to Miss Robinson for organising such an amazing event! The students and staff thoroughly enjoyed the day.

Coming up...

- ⇒ Thursday 25 October-Breakfast Club
- ⇒ Thursday 1 November-Assembly 9:00am
at the school entry Merit certificate
