BOOK WEEK Costume Parade!

This Thursday 22nd August we will be celebrating Book Week with a bacon and egg breakfast from 8.30am followed by a costume parade at 9am. The seniors from the Tamma Village have been invited to attend and judge the parade. We would love to see all parents, grandparents and community members come along to enjoy the breakfast and parade.

The theme for this years Book Week is
"Reading is my secret power"

STEM

Last Wednesday Miss K coordinated a whole school STEM challenge. Each classroom had a different challenge.

The junior classroom worked with BeeBots. The middle classroom programmed Edison Robots to navigate obstacles. The senior class worked on their Lego league kits ready to commence programming their robotics.

Each class then shared their projects. Every student was involved in a presentation to showcase their achievements.
